

Military Science: Minor

OSU-Cascades

The Department of Military Science offers a minor which is open to any OSU student. At least 18 of the 27 credits required in the minor must be military science courses.

- Military Science (18 credits)

MS 111, 112, 113. Military Science I: Leadership Development, Military Skills, Land Navigation (1,1,1)
MS 211, 212, 213. Military Science II: Effective Team Building, American Military History, Fundamentals of Military Operations (2,2,2)
MS 311, 312, 313. Military Science III: Leadership and Management of Military Organization (3,3,3)
MS 314. National Advanced Leadership Camp at Fort Lewis, WA (6)
MS 411, 412, 413. Military Science IV: Preparation for Officership (3,3,3)

- History (3 credits)

MS 405. Reading and Conference (3)

- Choose 2 courses (6 credits) from the list below. A student cannot use a minor course for this minor that is also part of their major. Lower Division courses are offered through COCC

Anthropology

ANTH 380. *Cultures in Conflict (3) [offered through E-campus]

Communication

SP 111. *Public Speaking (3)
SP 218. *Interpersonal Communication (3)
COMM 322. Small-Group Problem Solving (3)
COMM 446. *Communication in Internal Conflict and Disputes (3)

Philosophy

PHL 202. Problems of Philosophy: Ethics (4)
[PHL 205 Ethics through E-campus also available]

Political Science

PS 201. *Introduction to United States Government and Politics (4)
PS 205. *Introduction to International Relations (4)

Total=27