8:10am – Jordan Runk

Jordan Runk is a counseling student hoping to attend the American Counseling Association conference to see a psychiatrist speaking about person-centered counseling. He asked for $700 in order to help cover travel and conference fees, and his service to campus, Jordan hopes to present a video or essay to graduate and undergraduate students. He also has the goal to advocate for LPC's to receive Medicare reimbursement.

The vote to allocate Jordan Runk $700 from the campus development funds passed 9-0-0

8:20am – Quentin Comus

Quentin is looking to attend a scout sustainability event that he was invited to through one of his nonprofits. From this, he will be learning how to organize and manage large groups of people, which will benefit the school particularly well during the first-year events next fall.

The vote to allocate Quentin Comus $700 from the campus development funds passed 9-0-0

8:35am – Jade Warner

We withdrew funding from pottery club because they did not progress with starting the club after setting a hard date. We discussed class reps and the idea of having a single application for the job with marked preference toward ASCC or SFC.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:02am
